This event is organised by CCRA to encourage:

- community involvement in fun activities for all the family;
- everyone to grow more produce, in line with our green agenda;
- the sharing of craft and cooking skills between neighbours; and
- to make Charlton a more sociable and friendly place to live.

So how does this show work and how do I enter?

.....read on.....

Come along to St Richard's Hall on Saturday 16 September

Times

Deliver entries between 8.00 a.m. and 10.45 a.m. and a steward will register your entry. After 10.45 am the Hall will be closed to the public for judging.

The hall will reopen at 2.15 pm for entries to be viewed and prize giving will be at 2.30 pm. All exhibits must be left in the Hall until 3.00 pm for display and then removed.

Cost

Each entry costs £1 for adults with free entry for children

Prizes

1st Prize, 2nd Prize and Highly Commended certificates may be awarded along with a small monetary prize for first (£1) and second (50p) class winners only.

Conditions

- Only residents in the CCRA area, or associate members of CCRA (+ Fosdene pupils) may enter the competition.
- No one can have more than two entries in a single class.
- All exhibits must be bona-fide productions of the entrants, or personally grown in their homes/gardens/allotments. The exceptions are the Flower Arranging classes which are judged solely as decorative exhibits.
- Judges may withhold prizes if they consider the quality insufficient and entries may be disqualified if they contravene the rules/conditions of entry. You are STRONGLY ADVISED to read the separate "Hints and Tips" on each class - see the website for details.
- The Judges' decisions are final and appeals must be made to the Chair of the Show Committee before 2:25 p.m. on the day of the Show.
- The organisers cannot accept responsibility for any loss or damage to entries.
- Please note - in the case of edible goods, a proportion of the exhibit will be made available for tasting purposes on the day.

Entries will be accepted on the day. You can complete an entry form on the day when you submit your entry. Alternatively, you can download entry forms in advance from the CCRA website, email chair@charltonresidents.net or get them from:
