This event is organised by CCRA to encourage:

- community involvement in fun activities for all the family;
- everyone to grow more produce, in line with our green agenda;
- the sharing of craft and cooking skills between neighbours; and
- to make Charlton a more sociable and friendly place to live.

So how does this show work and how do I enter?

.....read on.....

Come along to St Richard's Hall on Saturday 7 September 2023

Times

Deliver entries between 8.00 a.m. and 10.30 a.m. and a steward will register your entry. After 10.30 am the Hall will be closed to the public for judging. The hall will reopen at 2.30 pm for entries to be viewed and prize giving will be at 2.45 pm. All exhibits must be left in the Hall until 3.30 pm for display and then removed. If you are unable to collect your entry at 3.30 please let a steward know so that alternative collection arrangement can be made.

Cost

Each entry costs £1 for adults with free entry for children.

Prizes

1st Prize, 2nd Prize and Highly Commended certificates may be awarded along with a prize for first (£1) and second (50p) class winners only.

Conditions

- We strongly encourage all entrants to be full or associate members of CCRA (excluding Fossdene pupils). Download the membership form from www.charltonresidents.net or see the Membership Secretary on the day.
- No one can have more than two entries in a single class e.g. only 2 jars of marmalade can be entered.
- All exhibits must be bona-fide productions of the entrants. The exceptions are the Flower Arranging classes which are judged solely as decorative exhibits.
- Judges may withhold prizes if they consider the quality insufficient and entries may be disqualified if they contravene the rules/conditions of entry. You are STRONGLY ADVISED to read the separate "Hints and Tips" on each class - see the website for details.
- Appeals must be made to the Chair of the Show Committee before 2:40 p.m. on the day. Decisions thereafter are final.
- The organisers cannot accept responsibility for any loss or damage to entries.
- Please note - in the case of edible goods, a proportion of the exhibit will be made available for tasting purposes on the day.

Advanced entry forms are not necessary as all entries will be accepted on the day.
